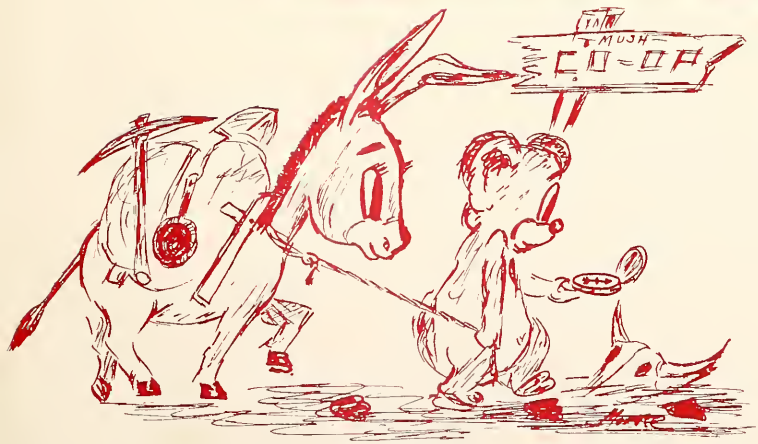
The Gold Rush Trail Leads to Mercer in 194

Richard F. Schultz Jr.
Kappa Sigma
Quincy, Illinois



we invite you

to follow the trail

SO THIS IS MERCER — GEE! . . . Bewildered freshmen . . . Orientation week . . . Correspondence from the outside world . . . RUSHING — Ah, little rushee, what will you have? Then pledging, and poor PLEDGE! . . . "Mercer is located in the heart of Georgia which has a very delightful climate" — Oh, yeah? . . . Those choir trips — Penfield and its impressive ceremonies . . . The "lawyers" met the "big wheels" at Law Day.

of FORTY -

The big event of the year came with Bear Day — quite a triumph for all concerned . . . The Pan-Hellenic bingo party was fun for all . . . Signing out on date cards became a pleasant duty for MEPites . . . Then Ann Miller put Mercer on the map with her grasshopper swallowing feat. What a gal! . . . Vespers gave every day just the right close . . . and the Christmas caroling around the tree at Roberts turned our hearts to the true celebration, as did Religious Focus Week.

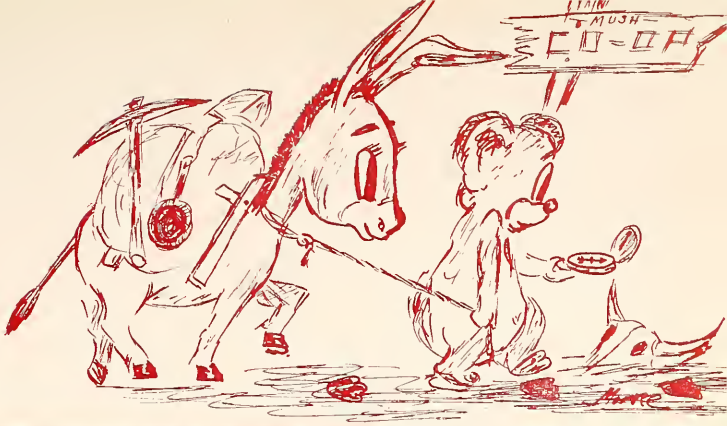
through

Susan came to grace our campus . . . Valentine's Day, and Nickie did herself proud on the MEP Valentine dinner . . . The climax of the year came with the dedication of our renovated chapel and organ on Founder's Day.

the year



DO YOU REMEMBER?

The I.F.C.'s kept our feet moving and our morale high . . . And basketball came to spotlight Mercer with her hard fighting team . . . Lectures and labs . . . Chapel in the gym . . . "Catology" . . . Classes and cuts . . . Week-ends and holidays . . . The Macon Youth Revival . . . All of these make the Mercer '49 trail.

CAULDRON

First WE DEDICATE

The forty-nine edition of the CAULDRON to one who has established a firm hold on the hearts of every student by his genuine interest in us and our activities, his sympathetic audience to our needs, and his promotion of better understanding between faculty and students. In appreciation for his pioneering as a counselor, friend, and teacher we dedicate this book.

TO YOU

DEAN RICHARD C. BURTS

FOREWORD

The FORTY-NINERS have attempted in this book to retell the story of the trail we have blazed at Mercer this year. We have pictured our toil and our laughter, our red letter days and our everyday experiences. May each of us find our goal at the end of the trail.

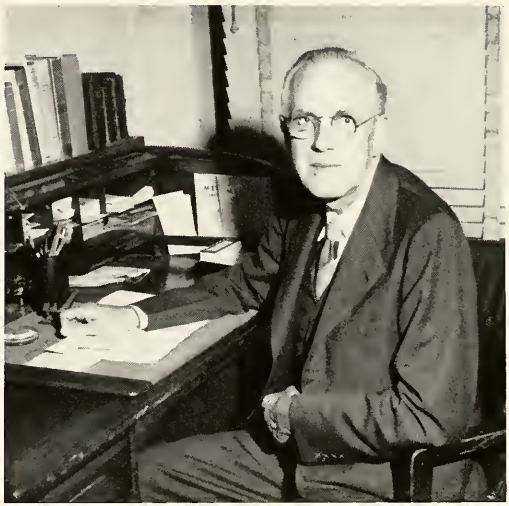
THE ROBERTS SCHOOL of CHRISTIANITY

The School of Christianity plays a large part in cultivating the Mercer Spirit and the Spirit at Mercer. Dean Hansford D. Johnson, able and sincere leader, is well known for his courses such as "Life of Paul" (and six term papers). Follow the trail toward his goal and you'll know the heights of true and glowing Christianity.



Sidelining her counseling and continuously promoting some new projects among her dorm girls, Miss "Tony" Bates also teaches Bible History in the department.

The problems of philosophy, religion and the church never get too deep for Dr. H. L. Batts and Dr. Pope Duncan. The bricks of the Theology Building would not be complete without these two.

LANGUAGES and BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

DR. W. P. SMITH, head of the Modern Language Department, plans these tough Spanish assignments. MISS CORINE BYRD, MRS. HELEN McKENNA, and MISS JO ELLEN CURETON are honored with probing "la francais et al espanol" into the heads of language students. DR. F. K. SCHULTZE teaches German and smilingly greets everyone that he passes with a short "H'ya."

Associate Professor of Classical Languages DR. ROBERT E. ANTHONY is spoken of as being very kind and humble.

That friend of the students, MRS. Z. B. VANCE, instructor of Secretarial Studies, handles her position with genuine interest and capability.

ENGLISH and ECONOMICS

Mercer is quite fortunate to have DR. ROBERT HIGHFILL at the head of the English Department. You almost feel like you are in England as he glides through that old English as well as Chaucer did.

"All right", it's DR. PAUL COUSINS, the warm-hearted and friendly professor of literature who came to us from Shorter, "Don't you see?" With him is the well-known PROFESSOR W. T. SMALLEY, who pleases the students by asking questions by the roll.

This English would be far from complete without MISS MABLE BRANTLEY, MRS. HENRY S. BARNES, and MISS MARY JORDAN SANDERS.

MATHMETICS and SCIENCE

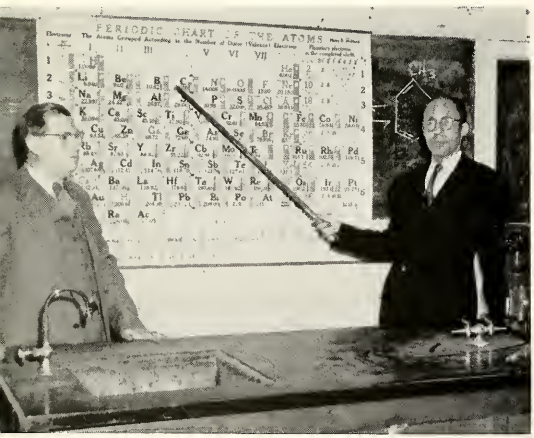
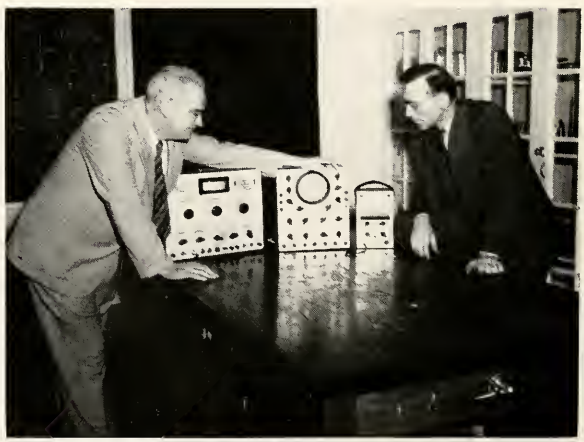
In the mathematics department, PROFESSORS CLIFFORD W. THOMPSON and JAMES A. DUNCAN look on while PROFESSOR RILEY B. PLYMALE goes into the "square root" of the matter.

MR. GAIL LUKE CARVER, the true "conservationist" and head of our biology department, points to one of those animals while MR. JOHN D. GOODMAN and MR. THEOPHILUS PARVIN HAINES look on.



DR. BERNARD BETTMAN, head of the chemistry department, discusses the chemical make-up of the atom with MR. JOHN W. HOLDING.



The head of the physics department, DR. R. I. ALLEN, and MR. WILLIAM H. MINOR, have a good time showing us what the electron can be made to do.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Education Department is under the direction of the philosopher of education,
DR. E. M. HIGHSMITH with his
"S.O.R."; DR. RALPH NEWTON, well-known educator in the South, and MISS OLIVE RENFROE, a sympathetic counselor of practice teaching.

The Sociology Department consists of DR. KELLEY BARNETT, the perfect advisor on questions "love, courtship, and marriage", and MR. and MRS. HOWARD McCLAIN (competition and cooperation in the family).

PROFESSORS DONALD McDONALD and HENRY WARNACK teach the "nose for news" to the students in the Journalism Department.

If it's historical or geographical information that you're seeking just ask DR. SPENCER B. KING or MR. ANTHONY STANFIELD.

FINE ARTS

The Music Department is under the direction of DR. ARTHUR L. RICH (Breathe deeply — and watch that blend!) MRS. RICH accompanies the choir and teaches voice.

Heading the Art Department is MR. MARSHAL DAUGHERTY (Mr. "D"), who loves to give hints on how to build your dream house.

MRS. MARY BROOKS (Popkins) HICKS, poised and attractive, with that flowing Virginia accent, heads the Dramatics Department.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

On the winning side?? Always!! With COACHES CLAUDE SMITH and JIM COWAN at the head of our Bear Cage.

And—as the heads of our Physical Education Department, MR. Z. B. VANCE and MISS NELL LEWIS will keep all Mercerians physically fit.

R. O. T. C.

COL. GEORGE R. SCITHERS, professor of military science and tactics, in the fall points out a troubled spot to MAJOR MALCOLM C. JOHNSON, who is the present professor of military science and tactics.

A MILESTONE OF PROGRESS—Graduation . . . reluctantly leaving old friends and sentimental places, to find our places in life. Tho' we beam with just pride over our diplomas, and breathe a sigh of "made it at last", we experience a peculiar sensation when the Alma Mater is sung and we realize it really is time to say MEMORIES THAT BLESS AND BURN — The Best is yet to be! Two years of fun and frolic — and a little study now and then — have just flown by. Believing that we are the largest Junior Class in Mercer history, we are extremely proud of our accomplishments, especially Bear Day, founded by Pete Murray. Just you watch us — we'll make history double plus these last two years!

and their officers

MARIAN EDWARDS . . . . . President

LAURICE WALKER . . . . . Vice-President

DIGNIFIED SOPHOMORES — And revenge at last! The freshmen were ours. It was pretty hard to keep them on the straight and narrow path. We showed them who was "boss" at Rat Court. This big event was presented by several stern, heartless sophomores, with the wild, terrified screams of the freshmen prevailing. With our major duty completed, we turned our attention to the difficult task of blending our scholastic schedule in with our "social life!"

The Choir Rides Again

All aboard for Brunswick, Sylvania, Savannah, and Waycross! What memories! Rehearsals and that last-minute rush. Time to rotate. The high school fans swarm around crooner Wallace. St. Simons was fun. Barbecue at Joan's house in Brunswick. Double whammy, and writing bread and butter notes on the bus. I'm all ready to go on the next one!

GREEN FROSH WERE WE — But not for long! We finally caught onto this college life, cutting classes and dodging around the professors. And these Freshmen fellows and girls seemed to get this dating business pretty well. Rat Week proved very exciting, and Rat Court was a riot — grrrr! We really felt like debtors to the Sophs in those convict uniforms on Bear Day; but when we guessed the true identity of Toby and Tot, the "freedom" from those rat caps was worth all the torture. The Freshman football team, known as the "Termites", entered into the intramural sports program and created a great deal of spirit among the Freshmen. Yep, we're right proud of our part of old M. U.

STUDENT EDITORIAL BOARD of the Walter F. George School of Law

The Student Editorial Board prepares and submits material for publication in the Georgia Bar Journal published quarterly by the Georgia Bar Association. Appointment to the board is made by the Dean of the law school on the basis of outstanding scholastic achievement and particular skill in the preparation of legal composition. Beginning in September, 1949, the Student Editorial Board will begin the publication of a legal journal of its own to be called the MERCER LAW REVIEW. The publication of this journal will be another "first" for the Walter F. George School of Law insofar as the law schools in Georgia are concerned and a definite advancement in the field of legal education.

Delta Theta Phi was founded in 1901 as Delta Phi Delta, in 1902 as Alpha Kappa Phi, in 1903 as Theta Lambda Phi and amalgamated as Delta Theta Phi in 1913. The fraternity flower is a white carnation on a background of green leaves. Its colors are green and white.

Delta Theta Phi has as its purpose to unite fraternally congenial students of the law, to lead them and their fellow students to high scholarship and legal learning, to promote justice, and to inspire respect for the noblest qualities of manhood.

THE 1949 CAULDRON

LIB HOWARD, Editor-in-Chief

What a rush, and we don't mean a gold rush, for the forty-niners of the CAULDRON staff. The mad dash started with registration and continued through the first of April. Garrett had organization fever, and Sybil with her able staff typed class pages by the dozen. Archer added just the right touch to the art work, and Jeannette with her fraternities and Dewey with the law school made layouts, and more layouts. John Stewart was everywhere directing faculty pictures, and Lib was here and there trying to see that everything went well. What a life, but oh what fun!

Wiggins, Hayes, and Stewart in action(?)

Hartley and Thornton were always on the go.

Garland, Hovis, Jones, Miller, and King fixed those classes.

Did someone mention tired feet? The business staff knows exactly what you mean. Many a day we faced a barren waste, but with the outstanding work of Becky and Tal, along with Jeannette, Miriam, Gloria, Finn, and B. T., those gold nuggets finally came in. Many thanks for each headache and fallen arch. Thanks also to Jackie for keeping up our circulation.

The Mercer Cluster

The Cluster in 1948-49, employing a bi-partisan staff and following a non-partisan editorial policy, introduced a number of improvements which made the campus newspaper both more readable and more technically correct from the standpoint of good journalism. Good news coverage with plenty of "scoops", the latest word on society and fashions, and outstanding sports section, more lively features than ever before, an unbiased, uncensored, and fearless editorial policy, and most of all a competent and co-operative staff made this year's Cluster among the best ever seen on the Mercer campus. Promoting worthwhile campus activities and constructively criticizing any campus irregularities, The Cluster was also active on the intercollegiate side, sponsoring the 1948 Georgia Collegiate Press Association convention at which time Jim Cowan, Editor-in-Chief, was elected president of that organization.

Presenting . . .

MISS Mercer of 1949

MISS LAURIE SHANNON

Laurie is the ideal of well-rounded Mercer coeds. Her vivaciousness, her sparkling charm, and her thoughtful consideration make her outstanding as a person, and her joy for living gives life at Mercer extra enthusiasm. We salute you — Laurie Shannon — Miss Mercer of 1949!

Attendant to Miss Mercer

Miss Mercer is selected by secret ballot by the students of Mercer. She must be a member of the Senior College. She is selected on the basis of appearance, personality, character, and popularity, and any other quality that each individual student believes should be present in the girl they choose to be Miss Mercer.

MISS EVELYN MacARTHUR

Evelyn, or Mac, as she is known to us, represents sincerity, quiet dignity, dependability, and graciousness. She, too, has won a permanent place in our hearts.

LOOKING BACK . . .

After a long trail has been finished, it is wonderful to breathe a sigh of relief as we look back over the uphill climb.

This page is just to say thank you to everyone who has made it possible for us to give you a book which we believe is different from any which has been produced at Mercer. Special credit goes to Mr. Hattrich for his help, to Art Fuller for his work, as photographer, and the encouragement of Johnny Long, our printer, and Walter Dargan, our engraver. Our advertisers who show an interest in us and our school are not to be forgotten. Last we want to remember every individual who has helped us in any small way, and our staff who has spent long hours working faithfully and well.

Because of all of you we are able to say: Here is your CAULDRON. May it bring pleasant memories to you of 1949 at Mercer.
